TEACHING THE BIBLE

Rosilind leads the school-aged children's class at the church where she and her team are teaching the children through the Bible, basic Christian doctrines, and godly character. Robert also serves on the team as a helper and Andrej serves as helper with the younger children. Also, before Sunday service, she teaches a discipleship class for those in the church who speak English.

BLOGGING

In 2010, Rosilind began the blog A Little R & R, a place where she encourages women in God's Word. She doesn't shy away from hard topics; tackling what the Bible says about patriarchy, yoga, and other topics relevant to the church and culture right now. You can find her blog at rosilindjukic.com

GOOD MORNING GIRLS

In 2012, Rosilind began leading an online Bible study Good Morning Girls. One year later, the study exploded and women all over Croatia, Bosnia, and Serbia joined. With 11 groups in those countries, and 3 international groups, she leads a team of 10 amazing women who assist in leading online groups, translation, and graphics; providing women all over the world with accountability in their walk with Christ.

LEADING WORSHIP

Recently Rosilind joined the worship ministry after many years' hiatus, and often leads worship for the Wednesday evening Bible study and prayer meeting. Robert plays drums for the youth worship team, as well as on sound for Sunday.

HOME GROUPS

Together, Zlatko and Rosilind lead a home group where they delve deep into God's Word, and as a further outreach into their largely unreached region of Greater Zagreb.
